EXAMINATION OF THE CASE OF CONNER .-

Yesterday afternoon, Jos. G. Conner, or Corner, who was arrested last week by Officer R. Johnson, charged with obtaining money on felse pretences from Dr. A. H. Hayes, of Mass., late of the army, and also with robbing him of $25, took place before Justice Thompson. Dr. liages testified that about the 8th of April the prisoner accompanied witness to his room. and stopped with him all night. In the morning witness saw the prisoner looking over his (witness's) clothes, and that the prisoner made some excuse for the act, and went out. When witness got up he missed the money he had in his vest pocket ($25), and accused the prisoner of taking it, and made him give it up. The prisoner asked him to forgive him, on account et his family, and as a member of the Masonic fraternity.

Corner denied that he had made any such The Justice fully committed him for trial on the charge of larceny, in default of $100 bail.

The second case was called; and Dr. Hayes te titled that he became acquainted with the prisoner between the 25th and 30th of March. and they dined together at Willard's. After d nner the pai oner stated that he had a $100 bill, and went to the bank to get it changed, but the bank was closed. To accommodate him with change witness loaned him $5, and that night loaned him $20 more. The prisoner stated that he was a member of the firm of Jas. Corner & Sons, shipping merchants, of Baltimore, and that he was expecting a draft from the firm, and went to Adams' express office to get it. When asked what he had done with the $100 bill, he stated that he had lost it. He represented to witness that he had lately returned from Rio, where he had been as supercargo. He had a note for $121, purporting to be drawn by H. D. Gelston, and stated that he could not get it discounted except some one identified him at the bank. He said to witness that his father was worth a million of dollars, that the establishment of Corner & Co. was on or near Gay street, and that one of the brothers in the firm lived on Bradway.

Corner here denied saying that he was a member of the firm of Conner & Co., but that he had stated that he was connected with the firm of James W. Conner & Sons, No. 174 Pratt Hugh D. Gelston sworn .- Witness knows the firm of Corner & Sons on Gay street wharf, Baitimore. Witness had never given the prisoner a note, or any one else a note, of the amount stated. James Patterson sworn.-Witness had seen

Dr. Hays and the prisoner in the house in which he is employed, and has heard the prischer say that he belonged to the firm of James Corner & Sous. Witness gave the prisoner credit fer a small amount on his representa-

James W. Donohue (clerk at Willard's Hotel) sworn.- About the first of April Corner came into the hall of the hotel in company with Dr. Hays. The presoner stated that he belonged to a large shipping house in Baltimore, and used the game of Conner or Corner. The firm was in the Brazilian trade, he stated, and he had been to Brazil on business, representing his father. The prisoner stopped at the hotel but did not pay his hill, amounting to $31.50. Corner .- "You've made a mistake; I believe it is $24.50. But this has nothing to do with the present case." James W. Christic, sworn.-Witness keeps a restaurant on E street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, and knows the prisoner. He represented himself as a member of the firm of James Conner & Sons, or Co., who were wealthy. The prisoner was in his house every day, and witness loaned him a small amount of money. While waiting for a witness the Justice entered in conversation with the prisoner, during which he stated that he had traveled a great deal He was four years with Michael Warner, in Baltimore; but was not treated right by Warner, he said, as he was to have received $2,000 per year, but he was allowed only $1,000, and he " had made himself safe."

Francis M. Buckingham, sworn .- Witness is a brother-in-law to the prisoner. The prisoner is not connected with the firm of Conner. He had always understood that the prisoner's father resided in Annapolis. The Justice required the prisoner to give

$1.00 bair, and in default committed him to jail in this case. MAIL ROBBER ARRESTED .- Richard Sweet mail carrier of the 10th New York Artillery. was arrested about one o'clock yesterday afternoon, as he was getting on his horse, in front of e city post office, and taken before Postmaster Bowen. In his pockets were found twentyfour unopened letters, belonging to different members of his regiment, and one which had been opened, and which, from the postmark, must have arrived on Tuesday.

Sweet has been suspected in the office for a couple of weeks back, and has been watched, but, until yesterday, nothing was seen to warrant his arrest. When confronted by Mr. Bowen he at once admitted that he had been filching and opening letters to his regiment for the past eight weeks. He admitted having approprinted a good deal of money taken from these Sweet is only sixteen years of age, and did not seem, when arrested, to fully comprehend the enormity of his crime.

THE NAIAD QUEEN .- See Mr. Ford's advertisement in another column announcing that the doors of the Holiday Street Theater will be open every afternoon next week, for the purpose of giving citizens of Washington visiting Baltimore on pleasure or business an opportunity of witnessing the performance of the Naiad Quien, which he has put upon the boards in & manner which could not be surpassed. ANNIVERSARY OF THE YOUNG MEN'S CHR 13. TIAN ASSOCIATION -The tenth anniversary meeting of the Young Men's Christian A socintien was held last evening at the Ninth s reet Presbyterian Church, and was largely attended.

President Beard read his report for the past year. The report opens by stating that the peculiar characteristics of the year have monopolized the attention of many good min who would otherwise have been working with the association; there has been however some addition of members to the association. The ordinary receipts of the year amount to $1,193.83. The ordinary expenses $618.10. The receipts of the Missionary fund to $776.17. The total recepts amount to $1,702.19, and the expenses $1,424.28. The balance common funds of the association remaining in hand after deducting 892 36 applicable for building the chapel on I street, between Twenty-second and Twentythird streets, is $267.43. The lectures of John B Gough yielded $570. During the past w nter the association received from the corporation of Washington $350 to purchase fuel for the poor, and a committee was appointed who superinter ded the distribution of fuel, visiting the restdence of each at pheant before the wood was Set f

The mission schools are reported to be most ly uspended, but efforts are being made to reerganize them. The chapel in the First Ward will er ady for service in a few weeks, and school No. 4 will at once be established there. The chapel is not only to be used for the school, but to hold meetings in for the soldiers, teamsters, etc., in that section of the city. The cost of the building will be $1,000, of which there is $350 in hand and $200 in subscriptions, leaving less than one half to be raised. the association returns their thanks to the ladies for their efforts at the fair to raise means for building this chapel. The missionary, Rev. C. P. Lyford, resigned in September last, and his place was filled by the appointment of Rev. A. Pitcher, of New York, who is still in the work. From the 16th of November to the 16th of March, he distributed $,832 testaments, 9,446 newspapers, 1,459,520 pages of reading matter.

1,350 hymn books, 706 other books and 58 pamplets. He has held 265 meetings, and travelled 930 miles. The report states that the use of the Association's rooms have been granted to the United States Christian Commission, and that the Commussion and Association are working harmoniously together. The work of the Association is mostly among the soldiers, teamsters in the camps, hospitals, fortifications, &c. The incoming President, Mr. Wm. Ballantyne, was introduced, and delivered a short inaugural, in which he stated the object of the Association, and instanced the growth of Christian associations throughout the land.

Rev. Dr. Ganse, of New York: Rear Admiral Fcote, Rev. C. P. Lyford, and Rev. W. E. Boardman addressed the meeting. Mr. B. said, the Christian Commission had now 505 delegates, who are actively employed in preaching and distributing books to soldiers. He had just drawn a requisition for 20,000 Testaments for distribution in the three armies of the West. General O. O. Howard, Rear Admiral A. H. Foote, and President Lincoln were constituted life members of the Association, and quite a liberal collection was raised.

WON'T AFFILIATE .- As the story goes, two well known colored people of this city (barbers) a day or two ago called upon the Haytien Minister. They were admitted, and the Minister asked them what they desired of him. The visitors replied that they called merely to pay a social visit; when they were told by M. Romaine "that he had come here to represent his counry. and not to entertain the colored people." He, therefore, dismissed them, at the same time ordering his servant to escort his visitors out the back way.

THE PAINTING, "Loss of the Monitor," which has been on exhibition at Blanchard & Mohun's for some time, is now at Gautier's, on Pennsylvania avenue, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets. The painting will be raffled as soon as the numbers are taken, and gentlemen will do well to call and book their names. A photograph card will be furnished those who book for a chance.
